

IIDT

INTEGRATING INTERDISCIPLINARY DESIGN THINKING

Developing High Demand Workforce Skills at the Intersection of Art & Industry

GOAL

Develop curricula and educational resources for an interdisciplinary hands-on learning environment that serves students, the workforce, and regional industry in design-related fields.

TEXAS INSTRUMENTS

OBJECTIVES

- ▶ Create market-driven and competency-based curriculum in design thinking
- ▶ Provide an interdisciplinary and experiential learning environment for students and the community
- ▶ Serve as the technical and logistical hub for regional coordination, planning, and workforce training in design thinking

CURRENT PROGRAM ENROLLMENTS

46 AAS CAD 72 AAS CST 12 AFA VA

8,383

Official Fall 2019 11th day headcount

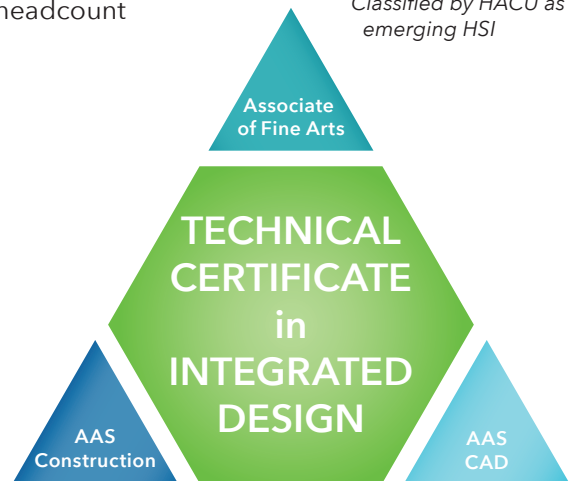

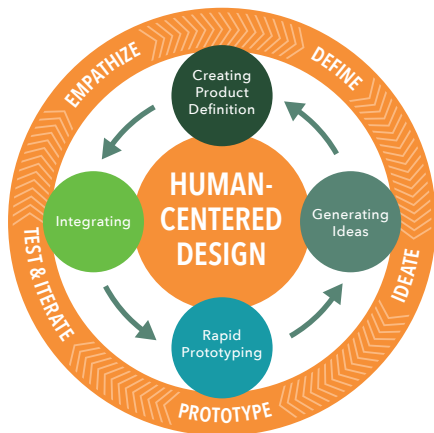

23%

Hispanic or Latino students
Classified by HACU as an emerging HSI

PROJECT ACTIVITIES

- ▶ IIDT Design Thinking Curriculum Rollout: Sept. 2020

CONTACT INFORMATION

Christine Davis, PI
cdavis22@nwacc.edu

Jennifer Swartout, Co-PI
jswartout@nwacc.edu

Megan Bolinder, CO-PI
mbolinder@nwacc.edu

Amy Warren, Grant Director
awarren7@nwacc.edu

- ▶ Family Maker Nights

www.nwacc.edu/IntegratedDesign