

Request for Data Role Testimonials

To encourage students as young as high school or enrolled college students at Sinclair to consider careers in data analytics, we are creating career modules. We are looking for testimonials from Data Analytic professionals like yourself to contribute to the modules we are creating. Videos and testimonials contained in the module will feature advice and encouragement from professionals working in data roles.

Please contribute your testimonial by answering the following seven questions. This questionnaire should take less than 10 minutes. If your testimonial is utilized in one of our modules, we will share the module with you.

1. What is your favorite part of your job?

2. What interesting projects have you worked on?

3. Have you ever been surprised by the findings in your data projects?

4. Can one make a difference with data (doing good)?

5. What skills do you feel are fundamental in your job? (math, stats, programming...)

6. Are you willing to be quoted?
